THE 49TH MAY SHOW REVEALS VARIED ART

The final exhibition in The Cleveland Museum of Art's Golden Anniversary year is the 49TH MAY SHOW opening May 3 with 334 works by 257 Northeastern Ohio artists. Last year's May Show exhibited 351 works by 258<sup>0</sup> artists.

The exhibition functions as a description of the work of this region's artists, who in turn, reflect the current artistic environment of not only this country, but the major art centers of the world. Sherman Lee, the Museum's director, says of this year's MAY SHOW: "It is a well and judiciously selected exhibition, worthy of this year of celebration (and it) is surely the most varied one in memory. Hardly a current or eddy of the contemporary stream is missing, from versions of traditional realism to 'psychedelic' and 'minimal' styles... ."

The seven-man jury came to Cleveland early in April to begin their four-day task of selecting a show from the 2,448 entries submitted by 996 artists. They gave special recognition to the following:
